Bell County 4-H Council ~ February Meeting

Monday, February 25, 2013

@ 6:30pm, CEO Meeting Room

Theme: Western

(come dressed in your best western outfit)

Program: Goats

Discussion Topics: BCYF / Fundraisers / Grants

All 4-H members, parents and leaders are welcome to attend all meetings. Remember that each club needs to be represented by two delegates (the president and the council delegate), they are the voting delegates for the club. Come join in the fun that your Council Officers have created. Also, come learn about what other clubs are doing and about upcoming county 4-H programs.

Remember that each club will need to talk about the discussion topics at their clubs monthly meeting. The Council Delegates will present their clubs ideas about the topic(s) at the council meetings. The council will discuss all ideas and decide which is the best solution. Then the Council Delegates will report back to their club the decision(s) made by the Council and have a new discussion topic(s) for their clubs next month meeting. The council awaits to hear the ideas your club presents.

Don't forget about the monthly prize money bucket. Tickets cost a $1.00 and at the end of the meeting we will draw to see who wins half of the money. The other half of the money will go toward our community service projects.

Also, remember Yip-pees (.25 cents - Share something good that has happened) and Skippy's (.50 cents - Share something bad that has happened).

Bell County 4-H Community Service Contest

At our last meeting, we discussed aspects of judging and learned more about two of the most popular contests - the Bell County Youth Fair and the 4-H Photography Contest. We did a judging activity together and then members had a chance to practice their judging skills by themselves. They quickly found out that it is harder than it looks! We are hoping to create a new state contest in Photography Judging - perhaps starting at our annual 4-H State Photography Workshop to be held July 20 and 21st.

If you missed the last meeting and want more information on photography judging, please contact Elizabeth Coffman. Also, she is sending out photography project emails, so let her know if you wish to receive email contact on photography events, contests, and meetings

Contact Elizabeth Coffman if you have any questions – 718-1332, familycoffman@aol.com

Texas Brigades summer camp registration begins

Registration for the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service's Texas Brigades summer camps program has begun.

This year's slate of seven camps includes a new one that departs from the traditional wildlife-only topics, according to coordinators.

"Our newest addition is the Ranch Brigade," said Dr. Dale Rollins, AgriLife Extension wildlife specialist at San Angelo and founder of the Texas Brigades. "We're excited to offer it as part of our ongoing youth educational series as its message of conservation ranching fits our mission very well.

"This is our 21st year of turning out young leaders through the Texas Brigades program and it's heartwarming to watch them mature and assume professional leadership roles. And while our camps feature quail, deer, bass, ducks and now livestock, our real goal is to equip young people with the knowledge, skills and mettle to really make a difference in wildlife conservation and proper land management throughout their lives."

Youth are taught leadership skills, natural resources conservation and proper ranch management at the camps scattered across the state, according to Rollins. Each camp is limited to 20-30 students from ages 13 through 17.

"The camps are designed to develop life skills such as critical thinking and team-building through fun and interesting activities that focus on a particular species of wildlife and now livestock," Rollins said.

The camp dates and locations are:

- Rolling Plains Bobwhite Brigade, June 15-19, Centennial Lodge, Coleman.
- South Texas Buckskin Brigade, June 16-20, Southern Star Ranch, Uvalde.
- South Texas Bobwhite Brigade, June 23-27, 74 Ranch, Campbellton.
- Bass Brigade, July 8-12, Warren Ranch, Santa Anna.
- North Texas Buckskin Brigade, July 14-18, El Escondrijo Ranch, San Angelo.
- Waterfowl Brigade, July 21-25, BigWoods on the Trinity, Tennessee Colony.
- Ranch Brigade, July 31-Aug. 4, Camp Buckner, Burnet.

The camps are a partnership effort of AgriLife Extension, Texas Wildlife Association, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resources Conservation Service, several universities, conservation groups, local soil and water conservation districts, private businesses, and individuals with an interest in wildlife and youth leadership development.

Tuition is $400 per cadet per camp, but Rollins said sponsors are available to provide financial aid when needed.

"And I want to remind those familiar with the Brigades that we're always looking for highly motivated adults from 20 to 60 years of age who are willing to serve as 'covey,' 'school,' 'herd,' and now 'ranch' leaders," Rollins said. "They'll get a full helping of appreciation and optimism about today's youth and the powerful impact they can have on conservation."

Applications may be completed online or downloaded at <http://www.texasbrigades.org>. For more information, contact Holdsworth at hholdsworth@texas-wildlife.org or Kassi Scheffer at kscheffer@texas-wildlife.org or you may call 855-TXBRIGS (855-892-7447).

This year's registration deadline is March 15.
