

Covey Call Count Summary

Texas Quail Index

Site: _____

Observers: _____

| Date monitored           | Mile marker | No. of coveys heard | Distance from marker <sup>1</sup>    | Time when calls heard | Official sunrise | Comments  |
|--------------------------|-------------|---------------------|--------------------------------------|-----------------------|------------------|---|
| example10-22 | 3    | 3            | 200 NE400 SW500 SSE | 6:42           | 7:05      | Weather conditions ideal;38 degrees, calm |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |
|                          |             |                     |                                      |                       |                  |   |

Fax this form upon completion to D. Rollins, 915-658-4364.