

Tree Management Workshop
 “Oak Wilt & More”
 Thursday, January 19th, 2023
 8:00am – 4:30pm
 San Antonio Botanical Garden
 Betty Kelso Center

AGENDA

8:00 – 8:30	Registration
8:30 – 9:00	Welcome and Introduction David Rodriguez, Extension Horticulturist – Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service Sabina Carr, Chief Executive Officer – San Antonio Botanical Garden
9:00 – 10:05	Root Collar Excavation & Tree Injection Demonstration conducted by Dr. David Appel, Extension Plant Pathologist (Retired) – Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service & Bartlett Tree Expert, Plant Pathologist, Dr. Andrew Loyd
10:05 – 10:15	Break
10:15 – 12:00	Oak Wilt, Drought, Freeze Damage, and Other Stressors of Trees in the Bexar County Environment - Dr. David Appel, Extension Plant Pathologist (Retired)
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch Co-Sponsored by Bartlett Tree Experts
1:00 – 2:00	Common Pests of Trees in the Landscape – Molly Keck, Senior Program Specialist Entomology – Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service
2:05 – 3:00	Keeping Trees Healthy – Tips to Minimize Stress and Proper Pruning Techniques Mark Kroeze, Urban Forester – Texas A&M Forest Service
3:00 – 3:15	Break
3:15 – 4:00	Tree Diversity as Related to Replacement and Planning Mike Holinsky, City Forester – City of San Antonio ----- San Antonio Oak Wilt Ordinance; Tree License Requirements Mark Bird, City Arborist – City of San Antonio
4:00 – 4:15	Update on Oak Wilt in Bexar County – Erin Davis, Staff Forester with the Texas A&M Forest Service
4:15 – 4:30	Evaluations and Becoming a SAAA member – Jacob West, President of San Antonio Arborist Association and Local Manager & Board-Certified Arborist for Bartlett Tree Experts

