4-H MOTTO, PLEDGE, PRAYER, & CREED

IN SUPPORT OF THE 4-H CLUB MOTTO

MOTTO

To Make The Best Better.

PLEDGE

The four "H's" are explained in the pledge:

I pledge:

*My HEAD to clearer thinking,
My HEART to greater loyalty,
My HANDS to larger service and
My HEALTH to better living for My club, my community, my country and my world.*

4-H PRAYER

"Help me, Oh Lord, to live so that the world may be a little better because Thou didst make me.
Amen

4-H CREED

I believe in 4-H for the opportunity it will give me to become a useful citizen.
I believe in the training of my HEAD for the power it will give me to think, to plan and to reason
I believe in the training of my HEART for the nobleness it will give me to become kind, sympathetic and true.
I believe in the training of my HANDS for the dignity it will give me to become useful, helpful and skillful.
I believe in the training of my HEALTH for the strength it will give me to enjoy life, resist disease and make for efficiency.
I believe in my country, my state and my community and my responsibility for their development.
In all these things, I believe and I am willing to dedicate my service to their fulfillment.

4-H “4 1 1”

WELCOME TO BELL COUNTY 4-H. As a 4-H family, you probably have a lot of questions about 4-H. We hope that this handbook will answer many of those questions.

WHAT IS 4-H? 4-H is a youth development program which is part of Texas AgriLife Extension Service, a division of the Texas A&M University System. 4-H’s partners include the United States Department of Agriculture and local county governments.

WHAT DO YOU DO IN 4-H? The 4-H method is “learn by doing.” Members complete learning experiences called 4-H projects. A project is a subject or area of interest that the 4-H member wants to learn more about. There are more than 40 areas that are supported by project materials, but a member may also choose from other areas. Youth participate through local 4-H clubs. Clubs participate in community service projects, tour interesting places and learn interesting things. 4-H’ers learn leadership skills by planning club activities and by being officers in their clubs. Older 4-H members act as teen leaders, assisting adult volunteers with projects and activities for younger members. 4-H members also attend camps, contests and conferences at the county, district, state and national levels

WHAT DOES A 4-H CLUB DO? When you join 4-H, you pick a 4-H club. It elects its own officers and conducts its own business. The club group usually has a president, vice president(s), secretary, treasurer, reporter and may have a historian or parliamentarian. The club has a business meeting on a regular basis with an annual plan for their programs. At this meeting, the group discusses business and makes plans for activities. In addition, each meeting usually includes some kind of special educational program. The special program can be demonstrations by members, talks by members, parents or resource person(s), or anything else that interests the group. In this member guide is a listing of Bell County 4-H clubs, their club managers and assistants, meeting dates, times and places. Refer to this list for a club located near you or for one of the project clubs that might interest you.

THE 4-H CLOVER The international emblem of 4-H is a green four-leaf clover with white “H’s” in each petal of the clover. The 4-H colors are green and white. Green symbolizes nature’s most common color and represents life, springtime and youth. White symbolizes purity.

4-H NEWSLETTER With over 1900 4-H’ers, the Bell County 4-H News (newsletter) is the number one communication between all 4-H’ers and parents and the County Extension Office. It is the responsibility of the 4-H’er to read the newsletter, which is sent out the first of each month. The newsletter contains important information about upcoming events, 4-H news, and deadlines. The Bell County 4-H News is also available on our website (<http://agrilife.org/bell4h/>) Newsletters are emailed to all members with the current email on file on 4-H Connect.

WHO'S WHO IN 4-H

COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT: County Extension Agents have the responsibility for oversight of the 4-H and Youth Development Program in their assigned counties. This includes the following responsibilities:

- Charter county 4-H membership/organizations (i.e. 4-H Council, volunteer/parent groups, committees, etc.) annually. Chartering includes the permission to use the 4-H name and emblem.
- Provide opportunities for all youth who have reached the appropriate age to be participants and/or members in the 4-H and Youth Development Program.
- Plan and coordinate the county 4-H program.
- Staff the 4-H clubs/units utilizing volunteers with the assistance of the volunteer/parent leadership and youth leadership.
- Assist the volunteer/parent leadership and youth leadership in providing in-service education and resources for all 4-H volunteers in the county.
- Explain 4-H policies and procedures.
- Ensure that a quality 4-H educational program is conducted in the county.
- Inform 4-H volunteers and members about opportunities at county, district, state, national and international levels.
- Expect to conduct themselves as good role models for youth both in public and private.

4-H VOLUNTEER: 4-H is a non-formal educational program delivered by volunteers who are trained and supervised by County Extension Agents. A 4-H Volunteer Leader is a person who is responsible for a group, activity, or event, and the members and/or other volunteers involved. There are two major roles adults may assume in 4-H: 1) Direct volunteers, or 2) Indirect volunteers.

It is the responsibility of the 4-H volunteer to carry out the assigned position responsibilities that they have accepted. 4-H volunteers are expected to conduct themselves as good examples for youth in both public and private life. This includes appropriate dress code, correct use of language, and moral conduct in accordance with the generally recognized standards of our society. It should be understood by the volunteers that they are expected to participate in learning, training, and teaching opportunities provided for them. All volunteers must be screened through the Texas 4-H and Youth Development Program.

BELL COUNTY 4-H MANAGEMENT ADVISORY BOARD: a board that governs the policies and guidelines of the Bell County 4-H Program. Membership is composed of 4-H Club Managers, Assistant Club Managers, Project Leaders, and 4-H parents from each 4-H Club in the County. The voting body will consist of three designated voting members per 4-H club. All County Extension Agents will serve as ex officio members and advisors to the board.

YOUTH ADVISORY BOARD: A committee of 4-H members, representation from other youth organizations, volunteer leaders and other community leaders. This committee is responsible for reviewing the overall youth situation in the county and making recommendations and developing plans for addressing youth issues through educational programming efforts.

VOLUNTEER LEADER ASSOCIATION OF TEXAS (VLAT): Membership is open to all adult volunteers who work with 4-H. The Association promotes training, markets 4-H and supports statewide efforts to advance youth development through the 4-H program. Meetings are open to all 4-H volunteer leaders.

COUNTY 4-H COUNCIL: A group of 4-H members who represent the community clubs, school clubs, or special interest projects on a county basis. County 4-H Council assists with developing and coordinating county projects and events.

CLUB MANAGER: A 4-H club manager provides guidance in the general art of leadership and management to a 4-H club unit. A 4-H club manager involves 4-H officers, parents, leaders, and members in promoting the goals of 4-H and serves as the contact person between the club and the County Extension Office.

CLOVER KID: 4-H Clover Kids are youth in grades K-2. As an affiliated group, youth enrolled as 4-H Clover Kids have activities and programs suitable for their age group. To advance their learning and competitive skills, Clover Kids are able to participate in activities, recognition programs, and competitive events only to receive a "Participation" award. Clover Kids are not eligible to serve as club and county officers.

CLUB OFFICER: The 4-H club officers are elected by the club each year and have the responsibility of planning, implementing, and evaluating all club meetings and activities. Working with club managers, they form an executive committee to give overall guidance to the club.

BELL COUNTY 4-H AMBASSADORS: Senior age 4-H members who serve in leadership roles to promote 4-H to other youth, community leaders, and volunteers. Individuals are selected by committee, through an application process based on their past 4-H experiences and leadership roles. Applications are due to the County Extension office by September.

COUNCIL DELEGATE: A youth elected as a representative for their club on the county level during County Council meetings. Each club is allotted two spots for Council delegates.

PROJECT LEADER: The 4-H project leader provides structured learning experiences and personal guidance and counseling in project-related opportunities for the 4-H members enrolled in the project group.

ACTIVITY LEADER: Activity leaders work closely with the club managers. They are responsible for one or more activity areas in the 4-H club. This will be a non-project area. Some examples of activity leaders are: new member/family coordinator, method demonstration leader, recordbook leader, judging leader, field trip coordinator, committee advisor, and community service leader.

JUNIOR LEADER: Junior leaders, ages 13-19, assist leaders by taking responsibility for specific tasks as requested by the leader.

TEEN LEADER: A young person between the ages of 16 to 19 who accepts the full leadership responsibility for a project group, 4-H club, or a special short-term interest group.

PARENTS: Parents provide support and guidance to members and see that members attend meetings/activities and complete responsibilities. Parents should attend as many activities as possible and assist with one or more 4-H events.

4-H ENROLLMENT GUIDELINES

It is the policy of Texas AgriLife Extension Service to extend equal opportunities for membership and participation in 4-H activities to all Texas youth in accordance with the provisions stated within all federal/state Equal Rights legislation provided that the membership requirements below are met.

Any youth may become a member of 4-H when he or she has reached 9 years of age or 8 years of age and has entered the third grade. Young children ages 5 to 8 (kindergarten, first and second grades) may enroll as a Clover Kid. Some clubs in the county offer Clover Kid programs and many activities in the county allow Clovers to participate. Some programs at the county level are offered only for Clover Kids such as Clover Kid Fair and Clover Kid Fun Day. Check your newsletter for county clover kid programs.

- Membership age is based on member's age as of August 31, 2011.
- ALL 4-H members must be officially enrolled (in an "active" status on 4-H Connect) to be considered an official 4-H member. No excused absences can be requested for any youth who is not enrolled in the official 4-H enrollment system (4-H Connect)."
- All 4-H enrollments must be conducted online via 4-H Connect. Please see 4-H Connect instruction manual at the back of this handbook. Texas AgriLife Extension Service charges a $20.00 participation fee for 4-H membership before October 31st, after October 31st a $25.00 participation fee will be enforced. Clover Kids will not be charged a participation fee but will still need to register via 4-H Connect. An additional $1.00 fee ($2.00 for horse) is required for insurance purposes for adults and youth. This insurance fee will be collected within each primary club.
- A member must enroll in one or more 4-H projects and complete six project related learning experiences.
- A 4-H'er cannot participate in 4-H activities, contests, projects, etc., in a county other than the county where he/she holds 4-H membership. If a 4-H member moves to another county, he/she may elect to join 4-H in that county but cannot retain membership in the previous county. A youth participates in 4-H by belonging to a 4-H club in the county where he/she resides. Exception: If a member lives near a county line or if a specific project is not offered in his/her home county and it is more convenient, desirable, or logical to belong to 4-H in another county, he/she may join 4-H in that county if the County Extension faculty approve. Approval should be in writing. Fair guidelines do not have the same rule.
- A member must participate in 4-H projects and other educational activities under the guidelines of a 4-H volunteer leader who has completed an online enrollment with the County Extension Office.

AGE DIVISIONS: Texas 4-H activities and events are open to enrolled members between the ages of 9 and 19. Youth can be 8 as of August 31st if they are in the third grade and 18 as of August 31st of the current enrollment year. 4-H members can look forward to new and different experiences as they get older. There are four age divisions in 4-H:

Clover Kids.....Ages 5 through 8
Junior.....Ages 9 through 10 (unless 8 and 3rd grade)
Intermediate.....Ages 11, 12 and 13
Senior.....Ages 14 through 18

REMEMBER: To figure your 4-H age for the 2012-2013 4-H year, determine the age as of August 31, 2012!

Junior Division: Participants must be 9 or 8 and in the 3rd grade, but have not reached their 11th birthday on August 31, 2012

Intermediate Division: Participants must be 11, but have not reached their 14th birthday on August 31, 2012

Senior Division: Participants must be between 14 and 18 on August 31, 2012

4-H PROJECTS

The project is the heart of the 4-H program. A wide choice of projects is available for members. A member or a group can also select an area of interest that is not officially listed as a 4-H project and conduct a project in that area of interest. Projects available in

*Photography	*Swine	*Sheep
*Rabbits	Wildlife	*Sport Fishing
*Safety	Small Engines	Wood Science
	Science, Engineering & Technology	*Veterinary Science

These Activities and/or Contests are offered in Bell County.

Through a chosen project, members learn to use their resources, keep records, track profit and loss, assume responsibility and acquire knowledge and skills necessary for every day living. Projects should be fun and challenge the youth to help develop skills, offer an opportunity to assume responsibility or explore interests and careers. Projects also offer a chance to do things with friends and develop leadership as they share their knowledge learned with others.

Not all 4-H projects have county-wide activities or contests. Some 4-H projects are self-initiated, in which the 4-H'er gains learning experiences on his/her own or with his/her family. More information about each project and activity is available in the Texas 4-H Clover Book. These are available in the County Extension Office or on the Bell County 4-H Website under 4-H Enrollment/Guidelines and Texas 4-H Rules and Guidelines.

TEXAS 4-H PROJECT SELECTION GUIDE

CONSIDERATIONS IN SELECTING A 4-H PROJECT

- Select a project you like.
- Select a project that can be completed.
- Consider the money it will take. Can parents/guardians help?
- Consider the space and equipment that you have at home.
- Consider the time the project will take.
- Consider parental support for the project.
- Be aware of the opportunities for growth in this project.
- A 4-H project should be fun, serve a purpose, and be worth the effort.
- Select only the number of projects you can complete.

ITEMS AVAILABLE TO HELP YOU LEARN ABOUT YOUR PROJECT

- 4-H project promotional brochures
- Project training workshops
- Tours
- Exhibits
- Contests - judging, visual presentation and 4-H recordbooks
- Reputable web sites

GOALS:

When you write down your goals and plans, you have already made a step toward reaching those goals. Your written goals will help you keep track of where you are going and how you are going to get there. Write your goals and plans for each project. Use the Member Achievement Plan (M.A.P.). Available on the Bell County 4-H website under Recordbooks.

YOUR PROJECT GOALS SHOULD INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING

- Knowledge goals - things you want to learn.
- Skill goals - things you want to raise, make and/or do.
- Leadership goals - things you want to do and to teach others.
- Community Service goals - things you want to do for others.

AS YOU GET OLDER OR BECOME MORE ADVANCED IN YOUR PROJECT(S), YOU WILL WANT TO SET GOALS IN THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

- Economic goals - what you will do to save and make money.

GUIDELINES THAT RELATE TO ALL PROJECTS:

- Make a set of project goals (refer to Member Achievement Plan).
- Complete certain goals each month - most project work is done at home.
- Keep a record of goals completed.
- Exhibit project work.
- Enter a contest at the local and county levels.
- Attend workshops on your particular project.
- Attend 4-H meetings regularly.
- Complete 4-H M.A.P. and/or record book each year.
- Develop leadership by teaching other interested persons something about your project.
- Carry out community service activities related to your 4-H project.
- Continue to study and broaden project knowledge and skills.

FIND OUT WHAT YOU CAN LEARN AND DO IN YOUR PROJECTS

1. KNOWLEDGE - THINGS TO DO AND RESOURCES TO USE IN DEVELOPING KNOWLEDGE OF YOUR PROJECT

- Read the 4-H Clover.
- Read library books related to project.
- Read magazines.
- Purchase literature related to projects.
- Secure owner's manual.
- Attend workshops related to your project.
- Interview someone who is knowledgeable about your project.

4-H CONTESTS

4-H holds many contests to give members a chance to display their skills and measure their knowledge. Participation in contests is optional but strongly encouraged. Winners of most county contests advance to district and state contests. Only seniors can advance to state level competition at State Roundup in College Station. State winners may be selected for regional and national competitions. Information about upcoming events are located in the 4-H newsletter and emailed to each 4-H family, events are also published weekly in the local newspapers.

FOOD & NUTRITION

- FOOD CHALLENGE: The Food Challenge is a unique opportunity to participate in an innovative food and nutrition competition. The 4-H Food Challenge, similar to the popular television show Iron Chef, brings fun, learning, application of knowledge and skills, and group competition together at one event. At your table, they will have all the ingredients and a recipe with just the amounts on the table and no directions! You are to come up with a dish with what ingredients you have on the table and only use the bucket of supplies. Then groups will present their dish to the judges. Clover kids are allowed to compete at the county level.

- 4-H FOOD SHOW: SENIOR(14-16) A chance for senior members of the Foods and Nutrition project to demonstrate their culinary skills and knowledge and participants compete in these categories: Main Dish; Fruits and Vegetables; Breads and Cereals; Nutritious Snacks.
- NUTRITION QUIZ BOWL: Youth enrolled in the 4-H Food and Nutrition Project may participate in the Food and Nutrition Quiz Bowl contest where they can showcase core concepts of nutrition, food preparation, and food safety knowledge learned in the food and nutrition project. This contest conducted in a “game show/college bowl” format allows up to four members to participate on a team.
- HEALTHY LIFESTYLES: This contest combines the consumer contest & knowledge in food & nutrition, health & safety to teach youth these skills. The 4-H members learn about different topics and then judge classes to pick best choice for the person in the story. Intermediates and Seniors work as a team to give a presentation of their choice. The contest takes place at TX 4-H Roundup and is nonqualifying.

4-H COUNTY ROUNDUP: During Roundup, members continue the knowledge they have gained in their projects and their skill in public speaking and showing others their talents. Presentations are an integral part of the 4-H program. They are an effective tool for teaching young people how to organize their thoughts and present their ideas and themselves. There are two contests available at 4-H Roundup:

- EDUCATIONAL PRESENTATIONS (METHOD DEMONSTRATION OR ILLUSTRATED TALKS): a 5-12 minute speech where members demonstrate how to make or do something related to their project area. The emphasis is on “showing” how to do or make something. An illustrated talk is speech during which members talk about a project using slides, charts or photographs. The emphasis is on “telling” how to do something. Clover kids are allowed to compete at the county level.
- SHARE THE FUN: The 4-H talent show provides a chance to develop talent, leadership and confidence, as well as wholesome recreation. 4-H members compete as club groups or individuals in a variety of categories such as: Choreographed Routine; Vocal; Musical; Poetry/Prose and Celebrate 4-H. 4-H’ers can also participate as stage hands, props design, and crew. etc. A fun activity for both the performers, coaches and audience. Clover kids are allowed to compete at the county level.

CLOTHING AND TEXTILES:

- 4-H FASHION SHOW: Fashion Show offers a contest for youth to gain valuable consumer skills in the Clothing Buying Division or demonstrate sewing skills in Clothing Construction and Textile Division. Youth learn poise and gain confidence modeling and

- FASHION SHOW STAGE DESIGN: Youth can get involved in Fashion Show Stage Design coming up with a theme and developing props for a fashion show event. This contest is only for senior level members at the state level.
- FASHION STORYBOARD CONTEST: The purpose of the contest is to provide and opportunity for the individual to apply, synthesize and evaluate his/her knowledge of fabrics and the arts and principles of design. It also provides the individual an opportunity to develop his/her knowledge of the career responsibilities of a designer and a fashion illustrator, enhance his/her personal presentation, and his/her verbal and nonverbal communication skills, resulting in a successful presentation board.

CONSUMER DECISION MAKING: Athletic shoes, backpacks, emergency radios, gift cards, gold jewelry, insect repellent, pedometers, printing digital photos, sunscreen, are a few of the items 4-H Consumer Decision Makers have studied to be able to compare the relative qualities and prices of each to determine which offers the best value for the money. Each year the items change, but this judging contest teaches members how to be smart consumers and spend their money wisely. Clover kids are allowed to compete at the county level.

4-H RECORDBOOKS: Recordbooks become a record of what a member has learned and accomplished in his/her 4-H projects. Members submit their completed recordbooks to the County Extension Office, where they are judged by outside volunteers against other members in the same category and age group. Recordbooks are an excellent way to teach youth how to keep records and allow them to record progress toward achieving their goals. Recordbooks are required to be turned in order to compete for 4-H awards.

4-H PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST: Members may submit photographs in various categories to be judged at the county level. Senior age (14-19) winners from each category will go on to compete at the state level in the spring contest. Junior, Intermediate, and Senior winners will advance to compete at the district level in the fall contest. Clover kids are allowed to compete at the county level.

DEADLINES

It is important that 4-H'ers and parents pay close attention to entry deadlines.

The Bell County Extension Office operates under a zero tolerance policy for deadlines.

No late entries will be accepted for ANY reason.

All deadlines are announced in the Bell County 4-H News.

4-H DEFINITION OF TERMS

TEXAS AGRILIFE EXTENSION SERVICE: is an educational agency, an outreach arm of the Texas A&M University System that extends research-based knowledge to enhance the well-being of Texans.

RECORDBOOKS: 4-H member records prepared in a specific format. Books are judged on the county and district levels with the opportunity for senior record books (ages 14 to 19) to advance to the state level.

4-H COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT: An activity conducted by a 4-H member or club for the benefit of the community. Examples include neighborhoods clean-up, voter registration, food drive. etc.

EDUCATIONAL PRESENTATIONS: Planned presentations by one or more 4-H members that teach information related to a project or activity.

JUDGING TEAMS: A group of 3 to 4 members who evaluate classes in the areas of consumer decision making, livestock, horse, plants, range, wool, mohair, meats, entomology, soils, and dairy.

LEADERSHIP LAB: This district-wide leadership camp is held at the Texas 4-H Center, in Brownwood, in June. The camp is for 4-H'er ages 13 and older. Participants gain leadership skills that they are able to bring back to their county and share with others. At this camp, district council officers are also elected.

COUNTY 4-H AWARDS BANQUET: A banquet held to recognize 4-H'ers for their achievements in the 4-H program, from 4-H record books to Gold Star. Adult awards, such as Outstanding Leader and Friend of 4-H, are also presented at the banquet. The county 4-H awards banquet is for all 4-H families in Bell County.

4-H NEWSLETTER: A newsletter is sent to 4-H families and leaders. It is a good source of 4-H information on upcoming events, activities, and contests. The newsletter is for members and their families to remain updated.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK: Held the first full week in October. This week provides 4-H'ers and leaders the opportunity to increase public awareness and understanding of 4-H in the community.

4-H EXCHANGE: This program is open to 4-H'ers 13 and older. The Exchange group hosts 4-H'ers from another state, showing them around the great state of Texas and teaching them about our local 4-H program. The next year, that state plays host to us, as we travel to see them and learn about their 4-H program.

TEXAS 4-H CONFERENCE CENTER OPPORTUNITIES

TEXAS 4-H CONFERENCE CENTER: Located on Lake Brownwood, the 4-H Center provides facilities and conference services for educational use by 4-H youth, volunteers, Extension personnel and others. The website for the Texas 4-H Center is: <http://texas4h-ctr.tamu.edu>.

4-H CAMPS: Offers hands-on learning experiences in leadership project skills and recreation and are offered at various times during the year. The Texas 4-H Conference Center Summer Camp is a 3-day field trip in July, to the Texas 4-H Conference Center in Brownwood, Texas that offers learning experiences in project areas, canoeing, archery, shooting sports, creative crafts, challenge course work, recreations, and team building group activities. In addition, summer day camps or other overnight camp programs may be conducted as part of the county 4-H program.

TEXAS 4-H TEEN LEADER RETREAT: This educational program focuses on the development of intensive leadership skills and targets 4-H members age 13 and over. Young people explore their own leadership styles and potential and develop plans to implement at the local, county and district levels. This workshop is held in January.

TEXAS 4-H CENTER SUMMER STAFF OPPORTUNITIES: Texas 4-H is known for the quality of youth leadership that comes from the program. These youths are valuable resources at the local, county, district and state levels, The Texas 4-H Center employs a summer staff to plan, implement and evaluate programming for summer activities. Summer staff applicants are not required to have been 4-H members, but they must have successfully completed one year of college.

Applications and information for these positions are mailed to county offices by January. Interviews are conducted in February and March. All summer staff are required to participate in a two-week intensive training session in May. Positions available are Program Assistants, Counselors, Lifeguards, Aquatics Supervisor and Summer Staff Supervisor.

PRIME TIME: Prime Time helps youth ages 9 to 13 learn interpersonal skills and develop lifetime friendships. Programming focuses on educational and recreational experiences, with emphasis on helping young people understand the opportunities that are available in the future. Information will be mailed to counties by January and applications will be accepted but not processed until April 15. Sessions are scheduled in July.

SPECTRA: Special Training in Spectacular Tradition (SpecTra) is the focus of this program targeting youth ages 14 to 18. A four-fold objective is addressed: project enhancement; leadership development; self-image enrichment; and career exploration. Participants have 20 hours of intensive instruction in one of nine program areas. Other recreational activities are

STATE 4-H OPPORTUNITIES

TEXAS 4-H ROUNDUP: For members 11 and older (Intermediates and Seniors). Roundup provides developmental experiences, which build on knowledge, skills and attitudes gained through local 4-H activities. Most contests are only open for seniors age levels and 4-H'ers must qualify at a district 4-H contest. Contests for Intermediates are invitational contests and does not require qualification at district level. State contests are held in June at Texas A&M University in College Station.

TEXAS 4-H CONGRESS: This mock legislative educational event is held in Austin in even-numbered years. During the week-long program, Senior 4-H youth experience the legislative process first hand. By role-playing senators, representatives, lobbyists and press corps members, youth are exposed to the full political scene. Activities range from debating bills in the actual Texas Legislature chambers to socializing with advocates and opponents at evening receptions. Youth return to their communities with a better understanding of how our state government works. Information is sent to County Extension Offices in the fall preceding the event year. Congress happens on even years.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT TEAMS: Under the guidance of the Texas 4-H Project Advisory committee, the Texas 4-H Project Development Teams lead designated project areas. Members are youth and adults volunteers, County Extension Agents, subject matter specialists and industry representatives from across the state with interest or expertise in that project area. Focus groups also work under the guidance of the committee. They provide opinions and help edit project curricula and project plans. The teams play a significant role in the development of new activities, curricula, project training materials, and workshops.

Applications for Project Teams are available throughout the year. Applications are available at the County Extension Office. Project Development Teams may include: clothing and textiles, shooting sports, sport fishing, horse, dog, rabbit, food and nutrition, sheep and goats, consumer education and finances, beef, family and consumer sciences, swine, entomology, and water.

NATIONAL 4-H OPPORTUNITIES

NATIONAL 4-H CONGRESS: This educational program for senior 4-H members is designed to teach participants the citizen's political approach to community action for youth. In addition, youth delegates participate in programs that focus on citizenship, leadership and communication. Youth between the ages of 14 and 18 on August 31 of the year attending are eligible to apply for Congress. Also, delegates must be participating in youth development programs in which Extension is a partner (4-H clubs, special interest groups, school curriculum enrichment, and ENP-Y). Information and application forms are sent to each county office in March. Applications are due in May and finalists are interviewed in late May or early June. Opportunities for senior 4-H'ers to interact with members from across the nation in learning experiences. Texas' National 4-H Congress Web Site is: <http://texas4-h.tamu.edu/natcongress>

NATIONAL 4-H CONFERENCE: This week-long event held at the National 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, Maryland, involves youth, volunteers and staff in determining 4-H program directions at all levels. Participants are involved in an array of operations committees, consulting groups, pre/post conference commitments and obligations. Participants are representatives of their county, district and state constituency and are expected to add to discussion in an effort to gain in put from all levels of involvement. For more information on this opportunity contact Kyle Merten at (979) 845-1212. Information is also available from the Bell County Extension Office

TEXAS RECORD KEEPING SYSTEM - "FOR THE RECORD"

Following is an overview of the system and information about completing a 4-H Member Achievement Plan and 4-H Recordbook. 4-H Recordbooks are due in June and are required in order to compete for awards. 4-H Recordbook Training is in the fall and each Spring.

CATEGORIES: A 4-H member who has participated in any project may also submit a record book for judging. The exception is senior members who have placed 1st at the state level in one of the awards program categories in any previous year. First place state winners in each of the categories will be awarded a scholarship toward a trip to Washington, D.C., during the Thanksgiving weekend.

Please refer to the "Record Improvement Guide" publication for guidelines to preparing a recordbook or go to the Bell County 4-H website for more details about recordbooks:

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND 4-H ELIGIBILITY ISSUES

Starting September 1, 2011, all 4-H youth, including youth in public, private, and/or home school, must adhere to the following guidelines regarding extracurricular activities and academic eligibility: Complete a “Declaration of Eligibility Form” – If you are in public or private school, your form will be sent automatically to your school. If you are home schooled, you will be required to come to the office to pick one up and fill it out.

OR

Name of 4-H member must appear on a list of eligible students to participate in a specific extracurricular activity signed by the school principal or designee. – This list is usually used during the youth fair instead of filling out a form for each student. Extracurricular activities through 4-H that require a “Declaration of Eligibility Form” or List of Eligible names:

- All 4-H Competitive Events (this does include photography, Bell County Youth Fair, Participation in ANY 4-H event or activity that would require them to be absent from school. Consistent with the UIL rules, the Texas 4-H Program has adopted a three school week waiting period upon change in status of school enrollment (from public to private or private to home or home to public or home to private) before the 4-H member is eligible for extracurricular activity. As a result of the 81st Legislation, no significant changes were made in TEA or UIL rules and procedures.

The 76th Legislature passed House Bill 3573 with 3 major changes in regard to school eligibility and extracurricular activities:

- Authorizes the Commissioner of Education (instead of State Board of Education) to adopt for extracurricular activities and to approve or disapprove UIL rules and procedures.
- Suspension period of “no pass, no play” changed to 3 SCHOOL weeks.
- Authorizes local boards of trustees to adopt policies that establish the number of times that students may be absent to participate in extracurricular activities. It also requires that the policies allow at least ten absences for extracurricular participation but does not cap the maximum number of days that may be missed for extracurricular participation.

DAEP PLACEMENT AND PARTICIPATION IN SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Section 37.006 includes a list of types of conduct for which a district is required to place a student in a DAEP (Disciplinary Alternative Education Program). Subsection (g) of that section provides that “[t]he terms of a placement under this section must prohibit the student from attending or participating in a school-sponsored or school-related activity.” (Emphasis added). In addition to the required placements under Section 37.006, a district may include other bases for a DAEP placement in its student code of conduct under Section 37.0001(a) (1). Also, a principal may make a DAEP placement under Section 37.002(c) in response to a classroom removal under that section.

The application of Section 37.006(g) is expressly limited to placements “under” that section. Section 37.006(g) does not apply to a placement made pursuant to Sections 37.001(a) (1) or 37.002(c) if the conduct is not included in Section 37.006. A district may adopt its own policy governing the terms of such a placement with respect to participation in school-sponsored or school-related activities. A district must be careful to apply Section 37.006(g) to any placement made for conduct that is included in Section 37.006 even if the conduct is separately identified in the district’s code of conduct or resulted in a removal under Section 37.002 6/20/2001

For more information on the “No Pass, No Play” policies, contact your local school or the Bell County Extension Office.

4-H DRESS CODE

- A dress code for attending 4-H events will be enforced.
- If the apparel item cannot be worn to a public school or public school events, it is not acceptable for 4-H activities or events.
- No hats or caps worn in buildings.
- Dresses or skirt length minimum finger tip length.
- Shorts must have a minimum 3" in-seam.
- No earrings for boys.
- No bare midriffs.
- No visible body piercing(s).
- No tube tops.
- No spaghetti straps or strapless tops or dresses, or straps less than 1-inch in width. Consideration will be given to special events such as banquets.
- No back-less shirts.
- No promotion of any alcohol, tobacco, drugs, sexual activity, vulgarity or profanity on clothing.
- No excessively sagging or bagginess of pants.
- No visible tattoos.

If clothes do not comply with the rules, the 4-H'er will be asked to change immediately to be able to participate.

4-H PARENTS – PARTNERS ON THE TEAM

Good youth development programs do not just happen. It takes a combined effort of parents and volunteers along with the guidance of Extension youth development professionals to establish a good 4-H program.

In 4-H we have a team ... a 4-H team which contributes to the ultimate development of youth. On this team are the parents who become partners of the team. If a 4-H team is to be successful, then the parents must become “regular players,” not “bench warmers.” 4-H work would be totally impossible without the active support of interested parents. In clubs where parental support is good, individual club members receive more personal attention and guidance from leaders and parents. Closer family unity comes from planning, sharing and working together. When a family works as a team, the strength, talents, and skills of each family member can be developed and appreciated.

What can parents do to support and/or help the 4-H program?

- Learn what 4-H is all about (purposes, objectives. etc.).
- Exhibit a genuine interest and enthusiasm in 4-H and in your child.
- Encourage participation in 4-H activities. Participation stimulates interest and enthusiasm.
- Assist your child in selecting a project the like, a project that they have the ability to accomplish, and one for which you can help furnish facilities, financing, needed materials and guidance.
- Provide encouragement and help in their project work with record keeping, demonstrations, judging and completion of attempted work and leadership responsibilities.
- Provide transportation for members to local club meetings and to county events and activities.
- Attend at least half of the club meetings each year with your child.
- Get informed about “what’s going on” and continue to stay informed.
- Provide a meeting place for a project group. Assist leaders and club by providing refreshments or other help.
- Volunteer to be a project leader. All adults have abilities that would greatly assist the 4-H program.
- Serve on a committee to help plan and conduct special club activities and events.
- Participate in the Bell County 4-H Management Advisory Board and serve on special project committees with youth to plan our county program events and activities.

Participation in the 4-H program can give the parent a feeling of contributing to their community, a feeling of being helpful to young people, and a feeling of value and worth. There is some credibility to the saying that 4-H develops both youth and adults. 4-H is a family activity. There is something for everyone. 4-H can provide an extended family, a network of positive adult and older teen role models to help provide a positive environment in which their child can grow and develop.

VOLUNTEER BACKGROUND CHECKS

Each 4-H parent/volunteer/leader is required to complete an online Texas 4-H Volunteer Registration and undergo a criminal background check. The purpose of the volunteer background checks is to ensure the safety of all 4-H youth. If a background check does not come back with a positive result, that particular adult will be forbidden or limited on his/her involvement with 4-H youth. For more information on or questions regarding this system, please contact the Bell County Extension Office.
