Theme—Fashion Design to the Rescue

4-H members should create their Fashion Storyboard around their interpretation of the design brief. Fashion Design to the Rescue! Wham! Pow! Bam! Take a cue from the superheroes or supervillains found in cartoons, movies and comic books to create your own original design. Whether your inspiration comes from a person with phenomenal powers fighting for noble causes, their masked sidekick, or a criminal archenemy wreaking havoc on humanity, let their colorful and flashy costumes, valorous heroism, and superhuman traits be the stimulus to your extraordinary blueprint to rescuing the world of fashion.

Comfort and practicality are two key words in Mindy Riecher's shopping bag. Mindy, who is from _____ Club, has wisely chosen a white over-size shirt, hounds tooth pants, and navy vest that can mix well with her wardrobe. The outfit will also be great to wear to senior get togethers, football games, and 4-H events. Great consumer skills, Mindy.

Ready for the beach! Andrea Jouridine, _____ club, has chosen a colorful, diagonal plaid for her bathing suit. The suit, with its high neck and criss-cross straps in the back, is made of cotton and spandex. With her coordinating hunter green, drawstring shorts, Andrea is ready for the water or a volleyball game in the sand. Have a great summer, Andrea!

Allison Ng, from ----- club, has chosen the simple classic lines of the orient for her formal gown this year. She has accented the black, jacquard fabric with gold buttons. The semi-fitted, full length gown features a mandarin collar and mock loop closures. Allison, you look very mysterious in your oriental formal.
