

2020 Lunch & Learn

HOME GARDENING BROWN BAG SERIES

Bring your own lunch and join us to gain information on consumer horticulture.
2nd Friday of Each Month 12 Noon to 1:00 PM

TEXAS A&M
AGRI LIFE
EXTENSION

County Extension Office at 3355 Cherry Ridge, Ste 208 BCMG Code: 001

FREE & OPEN TO EVERYONE!

- 01/10/2020 - Planting Spring Vegetables.
- 02/14/2020 - Growing Texas Superstar Plants.
- 03/13/2020 - Earth-kind Planting Principles: the right soil for the right plant in the right location.
- *04/03/2020 - Amazing Container Gardens. (NOTE: 1st Friday of the month.)
- 05/08/2020 - Insects: the Good, the Bad and the Ugly. Molly Keck, Integrated Pest Management Program Specialist, will give a presentation on how to tell the difference and what to do about it.
- 06/12/2020 - Garden Watering Systems: John Vann, Irrigation Specialist, will explain how to design a watering system that will adequately water plants while saving water.
- 07/10/2020 - Bees are Fascinating Pollinators, with David Rodriguez, Horticulturist.
- 08/14/2020 - Planting Fall Fruits & Vegetables.
- 09/11/2020 - How to Attract Pollinators to Your Garden.
- 10/09/2020 - Rain Gardens: Lee Marlowe, Sustainable Landscape Ecologist, from the San Antonio River Authority, will explain the "hows & whys" of rain gardens.
- 11/13/2020 - Food Safety: How to Prepare, Handle & Store Homegrown Food Correctly.
- 12/11/2020 - Landscape Design Ideas for 2021.

FREE & OPEN TO EVERYONE!

Most classes are lead by Bexar County Master Gardeners.

For More Information: visit bexar-tx.tamu.edu or contact Denise by email at dsperex@ag.tamu.edu or phone 210-631-0400

