

Brazoria County 4-H Parents Association Meeting Minutes

January 23, 2017 7pm

The meeting was called to order at 7:03pm by Nancy Devecchio. The 4-H motto was led by Cameron Arias and the pledges led by Janet Rossow. Hanna Eiland introduced herself to the group, before coming to 4-H she was an Ag Teacher for Humble ISD she received her undergrad and Masters from Sam Houston State University. The financial report was read James made a motion and Jonai seconded it.

Club Reports:

Chenango Stellar 4-H is getting ready for the majors.

Halfway 4-H has 47 members and their last program was "How you Live" and they will be having a Valentine's Day party at their February meeting.

Midway 4-H will have a dessert auction at their February meeting, proceeds will be given to a charity in need.

Angleton Warriors rang the Salvation Army Bell during Christmas.

Alvin 4-H is getting ready for major shows they had a teambuilding challenge at their last meeting.

Lake Jackson 4-H adopted 3 children from the Dream Center for Christmas and bought meals and gifts for them at their last meeting they had a wildlife management presentation.

Horse Advisory Committee reported that there will be a Tack Sale on June 17th from 9am-2pm in the Commercial hall at the fairgrounds. Gallapalooza is in May and there is a barrel clinic in April.

Committee Reports:

There was a Youth Fair Committee update and another meeting was scheduled for February 21st at 6:30pm

Finance and Fundraising scheduled a meeting for February 27th at 6pm.

Rules and Regulations will meet on February 27th at 6:30pm

Awards program committee decided on August 11th at 6:30pm, have 4-H office call to book date. (date was already taken, 4-H office made the decision to have Awards program on July 22nd at 6pm.

Old Business:

Squeeze cute and trailers will be sold to 4-H families, the 4-H office will keep the electronic scales. It was discussed for Buddy to build a bottom for the large animal scale.

It was discussed and approved for the 4-H agents to purchase one Go Phone under $30 a month to be used at events that are offsite. The number is 1-979-264-3878

The meeting was adjourned at 8pm, motion was made by James Dortch and seconded by Jonai Thomas.