Texas 4-H Livestock Ambassador Program: Every year a new group of 4-H members become the Texas 4-H Livestock Ambassadors. This program is for high school aged children and teaches all facets of the livestock industry. The ambassadors will also be required to help put on clinics and help other youth learn about livestock. The Texas 4-H Livestock Ambassador Program is an in-depth learning experience for selected youth to represent the agricultural industry in Texas. Training includes a short course experience on the campus of either Texas A&M University or Texas Tech University. During training, more than 30 hours of rigorous instruction by university faculty, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Specialists, and County Extension Agents cover topics such as animal science principles, leadership, career development, and animal agriculture advocacy. Youth also learn the value of giving back to the community. The 2015 Texas 4-H Livestock Ambassador short course will be held at Texas A&M University on July 20-24, 2015. Applications will be due June 1, 2015. Visit the Texas youth Livestock & Agriculture website form more information and to register.

Save the Date! The Gulf Coast Classic and will be held on August 1st, 2015 at the Brazoria County Fairgrounds. Start looking forward to educational presentations including sessions offered for beef cattle, swine, sheep and goats. The plan is to have three sessions per species and then one general session. Door prizes will be given throughout the sessions as well. The educational sessions will be held from 9-12 and showmanship clinics starting at 2PM. The show will begin promptly at 3PM. We will run separate show rings for the cattle and sheep and goats to save time. The rule book and more specifics are being finalized now so be looking for those items.

Guess what's changing?... We're excited to announce that the Brazoria County Adult leaders are going a whole different direction with raffle tickets sales. This year are going to be selling tickets for a Kawasaki Mule 4x4! There's an upcoming committee meeting set up to establish new rules and guidelines for the club sales. Be on the lookout for more information from your club Managers and leaders. Pure Awesomeness!
