A motion to approve the minutes, as read, was made by Curtis Sheffield with the motion being seconded by Judy Hamelmann. With approval the minutes were accepted as read.

Leslie Hargrove gave a report on the Financials Club Reports. As of the February meeting the balance in the account was $80,606.75. Not a lot of activity this month.

Britney Campbell reported that Alvin 4H is busy getting ready for officer elections – those interested are completing the forms. Many members getting ready for County Round up as well as getting involved in District Round up. Jennifer Klein also reported about the Robotics team. Friday's 4:30 – 6:30 is the meeting night. Jennifer also shared about the Photography program.

Jessica Thomas reported that Midway 4H is collecting books as a community project. A church in Freeport has been identified for these donations. Officers elections will be started at the May meeting. Had an auction and the money raised goes to a family or organization in need. Most recently the money collected was donated to the Military Mom's.

Judy Hamelmann reported for Chenango Stellar. First face-to-face meeting was recently held. The club is getting ready for their elections; several are receiving their 4H jackets from the Pecan Sale.

Sandy Sheffield gave a report of Alvin Stock-N-Stuff; the club is actively preparing for HLSR AG ID competition and getting ready for D9. Getting ready for the clubs Heifer show on June 26, 2021.

Old Business

Leslie Hargrove reported about her research for the bank change. It was recommended that we talk with Texas Gulf Bank; another organization within Brazoria County suggested this bank. Leslie shared the information that she needed to be able to get the banking change made. Discussion was had about a possibility of First State Bank. A motion was made by Judy Hamelmann, that we use First State Bank and seconded by Jonai Thomas. The motion passed.
