

1 Cup – Inside the House

Q. You should always do this when you brush your teeth.

A. Turn off the water

1 Cup = Out in the Yard

Q. Never Leave on of these running by itself in the yard.

A. A water hose

1 Cup – Finding Water

Q. This is where your city gets it's drinking water from:

*A. Place sticky note here
With local info*

1 Pint – Inside the House

Q. It is a waste of water to use the toilet for this purpose.

A. As a trash can

1 Pint – Out in the Yard

Q. Letting water run here is actually against the law in some cities.

A. Down the gutter and the street

1 Pint – Finding Water

Q. These fluffy friends take water all over the world.

A. Clouds

1 Quart – Inside the House

Q. This is the only time that the dishwasher should be turned on.

A. When it is full

1 Quart – Out in the Yard

Q. A leaky one of these can waste up to 15 gallons of water a day

A. A leaky faucet

1 Quart – Finding Water

Q. Another word for how a plant releases water.

A. Transpiration

1 Gallon – In the House

Q. This is the number of gallons it takes to fill the average bathtub.

A. 30 – 40 Gallons

1 Gallon – Out in the Yard

Q. This is where most people use a lot of water in the summer.

A. Watering the yard

1 Gallon – Finding Water

Q. A term used to describe an area where rainwater runoff and collects.

A. A watershed