

Tailgate Guys Spring 2017 RPTS Internship

Interns Needed: Two

Available Dates/Hours: Jan 31st – May 1st, fifteen hours per week, some Saturdays required

Paid/Unpaid: Unpaid

Job Outline & Opportunities for Gain: Tailgate Guys is located in the Bryan/College Station area. We just completed our fifth football season at Texas A&M, and are quickly filling our warehouse space as our business continues to expand our footprint. More than just event planners, the events industry is a group of businesses. This opportunity takes you inside the nuts and bolts of our million-dollar business, allowing insight into the challenges of large-scale organization, fleet maintenance, local market research and projections, and inventory management, and will hone your skills creating real-world business solutions. Interns will lead the way as we re-chart our warehouse, build accurate inventory counts, design fleet maintenance schedules, build our target client database, and generate various business proposals to continue growing our company. Interns will also gain exposure to rental and inventory software, and will be a vital part of the day-to-day activities during this off-season, including bringing Tailgate Guys services to several big-name events in the Bryan/College Station area.

Qualifications:

- * Organizational aptitude, preferably as it relates to large-scale projects (think 6,000 ft²)
- * Interest in gaining warehousing and event execution experience to round out an event planning repertoire
- * Reliable transportation to/from work
- * Interview with us! Meet William Adams '11, General Manager, and Renee Mayes, '14, Project Manager. We want to know you, and to learn what you are looking to gain from your internships.

About Tailgate Guys:

Tailgate Guys is a multimillion-dollar business whose focus is providing tailgate package set-ups for football fans on game days in the Fall. Tailgate Guys was founded in Auburn, Alabama in 2009, and the Texas A&M branch was born in 2012. Ranked as one of the top fastest growing companies in the U.S., Tailgate Guys is dedicated to providing superior service and equipment inventory, bringing a next-level experience to our clients, with our eye on being the best event business in the nation.
