

Student Internship Available – Focus on Special Events

United Campus Ministry in Aggieland is looking for a student intern to assist in special event coordination/marketing/staffing. The intern will work closely with the campus minister to coordinate two campus-wide special events each fall and spring semester, as well as UCM's weekly Peanut Butter Fellowship—a campus service and outreach program providing a free lunch option for the Texas A&M Campus. The student intern should be comfortable working independently.

Preferred skills: Social media savvy; ability to create marketing materials print and electronic marketing materials (some knowledge of marketing on-campus through Student Activities and Residence Halls is a plus); comfortable speaking to crowds and one-on-one about the programs; some experience of successful event planning; some experience (or a desire to learn) how to update WordPress websites; ability to work independently.

Hours: Approximately 10 hours per week, there may be an occasional week or two that requires 15 hours. The student intern must be available from 10:30 a.m. - 2 p.m. every Wednesday in the fall (August 30 - December 6) and spring (January 17 - April 25). The remaining 6.5 hours per week are flexible and can be worked remotely. Ideally, the student intern would begin working the week of August 21.

Compensation: The student intern will earn $15/hour and be paid biweekly.

About UCM in Aggieland: UCM is the campus ministry of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and United Church of Christ. UCM seeks to be a Christ-centered, welcoming, ecumenical community. Since 1928, United Campus Ministry has offered Christian fellowship and nurture at Texas A&M with opportunities available for spiritual growth and encouragement of students to discover and express their gifts and talents.
