

Youth Education Internship

MR Department/Business Unit: Millican Alliance

Date to begin: Spring 2018

Date to end: August 2018

*Long term positions and short-term project positions available beginning in February 2018

Job description: Spring/Summer Camp Youth Education Intern-Starting in Spring/Summer 2018, assist Millican Alliance staff and Camp staff in preparing for Camp Millican. Duties include but are not limited to; planning camp activities and schedule, camp administration duties, working with camp directors to recruit and train camp staff, staffing Camp Millican Mini Camps(Mach/June), (starting in June) assisting Camp Millican Directors with the day-to-day details of running a youth summer camp.

Special/Required skills: Must work well with people and enjoy working with children. Able to work outdoors during the summer. Must have a positive attitude and be adaptable to changing programs. First aide/CPR certified. Ability to work outdoors during the summer. Red Cross life guard certification a plus.

Other training/skill building opportunities; Nature Education Training and program design, curriculum building, event planning, marketing and administrative opportunities, staff management

Paid/Unpaid: both volunteer intern and paid positions available

Needed resources & who will provide: Transportation required.

Contact (Supervisor): Andrea Merritt

Supervisor contact info: andrea@millicanalliance.org

Additional Needs/Information: Camp Millican and Millican Youth Nature Ambassador programs are sponsored by the Millican Alliance and hosted at the Millican Reserve. Our mission is to provide outdoor resources and education to inspire youth and adults. All of the programming centers around a 4-pillar vision of expanding Wildlife Conservation, Art, Sustainable Agriculture and Outdoor Recreation programs activities in this region.