

Prune Now

Hurricane season is approaching, have you checked the trees in your yard?

By keeping track of trees on your property and their condition, you can help avoid storm damage.

Identify hazardous trees; low hanging limbs, and branches that may fall on your home, car, or other structures.

Then hire a certified tree specialist to prune them before the storm.

Be tree wise—protect life and limbs...

Brought to you by Texas Forest Service and Texas AgriLife Extension Service

For more information on disaster recovery visit texashelp dot T- A- M- U dot E- D- U.